The Central Florida Genealogical & Historical Society was organized in 1969. The Society welcomes everyone interested in genealogy, the history of the state and nation, and in furthering the objectives of the Society. Annual membership begins the first day of March and ends the last day of February.

The regular monthly meetings are held on the final Thursday of the months September through May at 7:30 p.m. with exceptions to the date and place for meetings designated by the President.

All meetings are open to the public, visitors are welcome, and members are encouraged to bring guests. Meetings are held at the College Park Womens Civic Club, 714 W. Dartmouth, Orlando, Florida.

MONTHLY SOCIETY NEWS

January - Our first meeting of 1980 was held on January 31st at the College Park Womens Club where we welcomed all of our members after the joyous holidays. Present at that meeting were 16 visitors as well as 5 of the 10 new members who became a part of our Society that evening. After a brief meeting, Marcia Wright, Program Chairman, presented a delightful slide presentation with dialogue on homes in Winter Park with a family or architectural background. Mrs. Wright informed the membership that a brochure regarding the Winter Park homes would soon be available for purchase.

February - On Saturday, February 23rd, the Society held an all-day workshop which was presented by Barbra Dalby of Ancestry, Tampa, Florida. The morning's discussion was held on the southern states while the afternoon's session was on the New England Settlement and New England research in Florida. During our brief coffee breaks and lunch hour, Ancestry had available for sale a number of genealogical books and periodicals to aid our members in their research. The workshop was well received and attended.

The speaker for our February 28th meeting was Kenneth B. White, who formerly taught college in New Jersey and is presently retired here in Florida. He spoke to our members regarding history in general and Florida history. Mr. White presently teaches a Florida history class at the Baptist Terrace in Orlando.

March - One of our members, Allen Taylor spoke to our Society on the five-family charts and also presented for a "look-see" many of the charts our Society presently has on file. He encouraged every member to prepare their family charts and stressed the importance of having those charts on file for genealogists due to the massive amounts of vital statistics and surnames represented.

It has been suggested that our membership re-activate a card file that has been dormant for quite some time in the Orlando Public Library. Each member should list the surname they are interested in researching, period (time frame) and state or country - also add your name and address for future reference.

EXAMPLE: Cruickshank 1890-1930 Scotland/Vermont

NEW ENGLAND REGISTER - Volume I, Page 149

"Our ancestors, though not perfect and infallible in all respects, were a religious, brave and virtuous set of men, whose love of liberty, civil and religious, brought them from their native land into the American deserts"-

(from Rev. Dr. Mayhew's Election Sermon, 1754)

WELCOME!

In the Society's last calendar year (January-December, 1979), we welcomed 37 new members. As you will note below, we have made great strides in expanding our membership in the first quarter of 1980. Please add their names, addresses and phone numbers to your Membership Directory.

IN MEMORIUM - The officers and members of the Central Florida Genealogical and Historical Society wish to extend their sympathy to the family of Vera Colton Halstead who went to her eternal rest on March 23, 1980.

BURNITE GENEALOGY

It was in 1794 that I began to research the Burnite genealogy. I had our family Bible and some old-time correspondence as starters. I located three or four Burnites in phone books and wrote to them - never receiving answers. During five years I ran into nothing but stone walls. I came to the conclusion that the greatest concentration of Burnites was in Orlando where there are four of us: my cousin and his wife and Ruth and myself.

In the Spring of 1979 Ruth and I were going north so we decided to include a Burnite genealogical safari. I sent letters to the known Burnites saying, ready or not here we come. When we started off we had an eight page family tree, almost all concerning immediate family. We never dreamed what was to take place.

We intended to stay in the Newark-Wilmington Del. area for two days. We stayed six days. We were wined and dined by newly found relatives noon and night. We found Burnite as a last name, middle name and first name. In one very long evening we were with Burnite family in Delaware, Maryland and Pennsylvania. Our family just crawled out of the woodwork. How many times did we hear the statement, "Are we glad to see you; we thought we were the end of the Burnites!" For two and a half weeks one family led to another. Historical Societies, cemeteries and courthouses led us from one place or family to the next. We collected three brief cases of notes, pictures and memorabilia. Each evening we would tape record the findings of the day in addition to having the copious notes we were taking. Part way through the hunt we took time to up-date the family tree, saving the details till a later date. The eight pages suddenly expanded to forty pages. Ultimately we were to be in touch with Burnites in California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Washington and elsewhere.

I am David Burnite the Fifth in direct succession, with our son being David the Sixth. We have found that there are twenty family lines descending from the first David Burnite; we have direct information concerning thirteen of the lines. What started as eight pages has now grown to over seventy pages and still on the increase.

The biggest barrier is yet to be overcome. Where were the Burnites prior to 1797? We have designated the first known David Burnite as such simply because he was the beginning of our present findings. The most likely theory is that there was a change in the spelling of our name. We have a few leads, but finding conclusive evidence is difficult. To date we know that all Burnites in the United States, with the exception of one isolated instance, are related.

James Michener did much of his research for "Chesapeake" in the Maryland Room of Talbot County Library, Easton, Md. Mrs. Starin is the Curator of Archives. Places Michener mentions in "Chesapeake" are connected with the Burnite family. It so happens that the Talbot Library was founded by Caroline Burnite Walker; and I likewise have done research through Mrs. Starin of the Maryland Room. She has been valuable in providing source material.

This past Christmas I sent the first Burnite Family Christmas Greeting into sixty homes representing over two hundred members of the Burnite family. This time last year we feared our "tree" was withering; but not so, it is ALIVE and HEALTHY and GROWING.

Submitted by David C. Burnite

The membership of the Central Florida Genealogical & Historical Society proudly joins the ranks of genealogical societies across the nation in voting affirmatively for the Genealogist's Code of Ethics as prescribed by the Federation of Genealogical Societies at the March 1980 meeting.

A recent visitor to Orlando was pleasantly surprised to find the genealogy section of our public library and of the genealogical interest in this area. For those of you searching ancestors in western Canada, she has generously offered her assistance. Write Mrs. Pat Hewitt, 10847 147th Street, Edmonton, Alberta, T5N 3E1 or call (403) 454-4408. Thank you Mrs. Hewitt!

THE DEATH OF CAPTAIN JOHN McCURE

Contributed by: Carolyn Bero Gaston

Capt. McClure was from Chester District, S.C. who fell at the Battle of Hanging Rock, bravely fighting, where he always stood, in front of his Company. He commanded the Chester Rocky Creek Irish, who, like himself, were always first on the field of fight and the last to leave it.

Said Sumter, "Good men must be lost,
At yonder point, I see:"
McClure replied, "That is the post
For Rocky Creek and Me."

McClure was brave, they called him rash,
He fought to win, or die;
I saw the fierce electric flash
Of battle in his eye.

The contest raged,--the field was red,
For blood in torrents ran;
Some bravely fought--perhaps some fled
But every single man

From Rocky Creek, led by McClure,
A daring front did show;
Their well aimed rifles, deadly sure,
Laid many a Red Coat low.

Though in their ranks red carnage stood
Naught could their courage quell;
Three Gastons dying, mingled blood,
A fourth one wounded fell.

His cheek was shattered ere he sunk,
by which good mark we knew;
A Gaston ne'er turned back or shrunk,
Before his country's foe.

A bullet struck our Captain's thigh,
He plugged the gushing wound;
"Advance", he cried, "Let's win or die",
"on, en--we are gaining ground".

Like hail the Tory bullets poor,
Among his bleeding band;
Yet high above the battle's roar
Was heard his stern command.

"Take aim the Tory columns rake,
"Who fears the soldier's grave?
"No prisoners make,
"The British suppliant save".

Then came the tug-the deadly strife,
Where all that's good and kind
And all that makes man cling to life
Is left far, far behind.

I saw mad, Fury's blood-shot eye,
Where goodness dwelt before;
And brother did by brother lie,
And roll in mingled gore.

Just then, oh heaven! shy, why was it so
Could not stern fate relent?
A Tory's bullet through and through
Our Captain's bosom went.

He fell as brave men always fall,
Teeth set and sword in hand;
His friends ran up--some few, not all,
He gave his last command:--

"Waste not your lead--take deadly aim,
Shoot when a mark you find;
Rush to the fight-your country's claim
Is stronger far than mine."

"Go, go--I'm in the arms of death,
Stop not for me- no-no:
Club guns and charge them to the teeth, Crush the d-and Tories, go
Crush the d-and Tories, go!"

I saw the men the clubbed gun wield,
Their arms were red and bare;
Mercy fled shrieking from the field,
And vengeance revelled there.

Shot, armor's clang, mad charge and flight,
Swept e'er that rocky hill;
Behind were groan, death, sob and fright,
The dead alone were still.

A moment-and the wild uproar
Had ceased-the fight was done;
Low-with eighteen brethren more,
Lay Chester's noblest son.

Thus fell McClure, the truly brave
And filled the patriot's tomb;
Where that man rests beyond the grave,
Let that place be my home.

This poem written (before the Civil War) by Dr. Richard Wylie of Lancaster, S.C., a memorial to Captain John McClure of Rev. fame.

Captain John McClure was a son of James and Mary Gaston McClure.
His mother was sister of Justice John Gaston of Fishing Creek. She is one of the heroines celebrated in Mrs. Elizabeth Ellet's Women of the Revolution. She died in 1802 and is buried in the Lower
Fishing Creek or Richardson's graveyard, beside her brother,
Justice John Gaston.

PENSION APPLICATION OF JAMES BUCKLEY

State of Tennessee)
Weakley County)

County Court October Session 1832

On this day being the 10th day of October 1832 personally appeared in open Court, I being a Court of Venue having a Clerk, James Buckley, a resident citizen of the afore said County and State aged Seventy years, who, being first duly sworn according to Law, doth on his Oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed 7th June 1832. That he was born in the County of Loudon, State of Virginia, in the year 1763, sometime in the month of February of that year, the particular day of the month he does not now recollect having now no record of his age. He states that about the first of August 1780 he volunteered in the State of Virginia in the County of Pittsylvania, he was called into service to guard the deserters under Capt. Lumpkins. This applicant was appointed Sergeant of the Guard. About the last of September following, he was discharged from this service & received from Capt. Lumpkins a discharge or writing, the exact purport of which he does not now recollect and which he has lost. He was in this service engaged two months and it was considered a full tour.

Sometime in the year 1781, in the month of January, I again volunteered under Capt. John Buckley in the County of Pittsylvania. We rendezvoused at Joseph Roberts on Sinking River and were ordered to go (thence?) and (fix?) a meet with Clay at Peytonsburgh in Pittsylvania County. He states that he joined his Company according to orders at Peytonsburgh. We had got news that Cornwallis had got to Dan River on his way through Virginia and we volunteered to keep him back from Peytonsburgh. We marched to Halifax Old Courthouse in Virginia and from thence we marched to Dan River. At Halifax Old Courthouse we joined the Militia from the lower parts of Virginia under the command of Generals Stephens and Lawson. When we got to Dan River, we found that the British had marched back into North Carolina. We found their fires burning at the camp they had left. We then pursued their trail to Surry County, North Carolina. From Surry, we marched to the high rock ford on Haw River; thence we marched to (Reilly?) fork on Haw River.

We marched & counter marched till we fell in with General Green. We remained in the Army of General Green till he was reinforced by the (armies?) of drafted Militia from Virginia. We were then discharged in the month of March, having performed a three months tour. At this time his brother took his discharge which he has never seen since & cannot know anything of it as his brother is long since dead. In July, 1781, he again volunteered in Pittsylvania County under Capt. John Wynn to guard prisoners to the barracks near Winchester in Virginia. He served in this service till the tour was ended & got a discharge from Capt. Wynn which he also gave to his brother & has not seen it since & cannot now obtain it believing it to have been long since lost or destroyed. In this tour, he was in active service upwards of two months. This ended his service having performed three three months tours.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity except the present & declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency in any State.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER -- CHARLES DIBRELL

Charles Dibrell applied for revolutionary pension while living in Davidson County in 1832. He was born in Virginia in 1757. He served in North Carolina militia and was in the battle of Yorktown under General LaFayette. He married Martha Burton. He died in Union City, Tennessee in 1840. Application is made in White County, Tennessee, on 6th September 1832 after Congress passed the blanket Pension Act granting pension to anyone who could prove he had served in the Revolution.

White County) S.S.

On this 5th day of September 1832 personally appeared in open Court before me Nathaniel W. Williams, Judge of the Courts of Law and Equity in the third Judicial Circuit of the State of Tennessee now presiding in the County of White, Charles Dibrill (Dibrill more plainly written) a resident of White County and State of Tennessee aged Seventy five years; who first being duly sworn according to Law doth on his Oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated.

He thinks the first short tour of duty he performed was in the year 1775, but of this he is not positively certain - He was employed in guarding some prisoners (Scotch highlanders) taken at Fordices defeat, Longbridge, Virginia, and carried into Amherst County, Va. In 1776 he enlisted in the minute Service - His Captain's name was Thomas Ballew. His Lieutenants name was Edmund Peters. The name of his Ensign was John Moss - The name of his Col. was Hains Morgan - But this Campaign was always called "Lewis & Christie's Campaign" - He says "here Col. Nathaniel Gist who was with the Cherokee Indians came to us" - He believes Col. Gist was the cause of keeping the Indians from folling our troops in a body at the Island flat battle. He states he was not in that battle - He believes he was out on this tour about four months, say from the 1st of September until Christmas - in 1777 he returned home, received the commission of Ensign and marched to Williamsburg - his Captains name was John Bates. W. Tandy Key was his Lieutenant - Charles May from Buckingham was his Colonel - But while at Williamsburg, he states his Commander was Col. Mason. This was a three months Tour -

This Declarant believes that his Commission is now on file in the Secretary's office, Richmond, Virginia. He further states that his next tour of Service was as a guard over the "Convention Troops" or "Bourgoyne's men" - His recollection is that he served on this occasion only one or two months - In the year 1781, he again re-entered the service as an Ensign, under Captain William Perkins. The troops were Stationed at Prince Edward Courthouse until Genl. Lawson's Brigade was organized - They then marched and joined Layfayette at a place called the Raccoonford on the Rappardane. At the Raccoonford, Genl. Wayne joined Lafayette - He thinks he was not out more than two months this tour - At another time he was out with three others to press? Bullocks for the army - But does not know how long. In the fall of 1781 this Declarant was at York Town and saw Lord Cornwallis give up his sword - His present belief is, that he handed it to Genl. Lincoln - He had gone down on this occasion to relieve an only brother who was in Feeble health, But finding that the Enemy must shortly surrender, they both remained until the surrender of the British army took place - His brother (Anthony, Jr.) was then discharged but was too much debilitated to march to Winchester with the prisoners.

He has no documentary evidence by which he can establish the foregoing facts - nor does he know of any living witness in the state of Tennessee by whom he can prove the same - But were he able to travel to Virginia, he believes he could prove most of the facts herein setforth - He hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any State -

SEVERAL HOGGS RELIEVED OF NAME

by Leon C. Anderson

Special Journalist for the Manchester Union Leader and Legislative Historian for the State of New Hampshire

The New Hampshire Legislature changed the names of more than 60 Hoggs during the first eight years of the 1800's.

Secretary of State Edwin C. Bean of Belmont observed in the 1918 publication of Volume 7 of the early Laws of New Hampshire: "Readers of this volume (period 1801 - 1811) will notice a considerable number of laws enacted to change the name of members of the Hogg family. For some reason, people preferred not to be known as Hoggs during that period in our history, and each Legislature did not consider its duties done until it had relieved several Hoggs of their name."

First off, on June 17, 1801, the Legislature allowed four Weare Hoggs -- John, Thomas, Caleb and Sally, along with John Hogg of Bradford, to change their surnames to Raymond.

On June 16, 1802, seven other Hoggs were granted permission to change their names to Tennant. They were John of Antrim, along with Moses, Moses B. Jr., William Mitchell, Samuel, John Walker and Sarah, all of Amherst.

The following day, on June 17, 1802, James Hogg of Peterborough was allowed to change his name to Wilder.

The 1803 annual session of the Legislature passed two laws allowing Hoggs to change their names. On Dec. 24, Charles Hogg of Springfield was allowed to change his name, with all members of his family, to Church. And Dec. 29, Thomas Hogg of Weare, William Hogg of Bedford, Hugh Hogg of Frankestown, and James Hogg of Dorchester, and all members of their families were allowed to change their names to Moore.

The 1804 Legislature voted as of June 19 to permit a dozen Hoggs of Dublin to change their names to Shepherd. They were listed as Mary, Nancy, Polly, Samuel, Anna, James, Joseph, Sybil, Samuel Jr., Harriet, Hiram and Davis.

On June 14, 1806, the Legislature voted to permit Joseph Simson Hogg (no address given) to Wilder.

The 1807 Legislature on June 10 allowed Robert Hogg of Marlow and his wife, Nelly, along with Sally Clark, Nelly Clark, Margaret Gregg, Robert Clark, Lasinda and Peletiah, to assume the name of Huntley.

The 1808 Legislature voted on Dec. 14 to allow four families of Hoggs to jointly change their surnames to Prentiss. They were William Hogg and wife Elizabeth and their children, Margaret G., Anna G., Robert and William of Acworth; John Hogg and wife Polly, and their children, Elizabeth C., John and Luther, of Acworth; Samuel Hogg and wife Lydia, and their children, Polly C. Samuel, Ephraim C., Margaret G., and Tharon, of Acworth, along with James Hogg and wife Gennet, and their children Betsy, Robert, James, Sally, Cyrus and Samuel M., of Langdon.

Interestingly, the 1807 Legislature on June 17 authorized Isaiah Horne (no address listed) and seven members of his family to change their surname to Orne. The family members were Isaiah G., Henry H., Mary Anne, Harriet S., Charles B., Frederick T., and Woodbury L.

Peter Kolb, son of Martin who was the son of Johannes, was born November 25, 1762 in St. David's Parish, Craven County, S.C., and died December 8, 1835 (36?) in Meriwether County, Georgia. Peter joined the United States Militia in May 1779 when sixteen years old and served throughout the Revolution. He marched in Colonel George Hicks' Regiment to Charleston and was sentry at a magazine during the battle between General Lincoln and Lord Howe. He took his sick brother, George, home in a supply wagon and then joined the command of Colonel Abel Kolb, Major Benton and Captain Stoddard, for the march against the Tories at Lynch's Creek, and then guarded prisoners at Society Hill. Under Captain Elliby and General McIntosh he was at Charleston when the city capitulated, and, being wounded by a ball in his right thigh, he was taken prisoner in May 1780. Released in an exchange of prisoners, he again entered service in June 1781 under General Marion and Colonel Horry and fought as a mounted infantryman at Eutaw Springs, Monk's Corner, and at Shubrick's House. He marched with Marion to the Swamps of the Santee and served with Colonel Benton who later, as a Senator, commended him and issued him a passport to move into Georgia. The fever to move west was strong then, and in October 1783, Peter sold the 150 acres left by his father and settled in Burke County, Georgia. He moved from there to Jackson County, then to Jones County where he lived in 1833, was for a number of years in Campbell County, and finally drew land by lottery for move to Troup (later Meriwether) County. Near Greenville he built a home where he resided until his death. He represented Jackson and Jones Counties in the State Legislature, and was a devout Baptist. His pension records are dated June 7, 1832.

Peter married Theney Gates in Jefferson County, Georgia on November 8, 1785. She was born October 12, 1767 and died November 1, 1821, the daughter of Charles (1738-1805) and Elizabeth (1736-1807) Gates of Virginia. They had thirteen children.

I S A A C L O V E, M.D.

Isaac, son of William Love, was a twin brother of Jacob Love, born 1743. Isaac married Martha Chappell March 2, 1775. She was the daughter of Robert Henry Chappell and his wife Agnes Cross of Prince Edward County, Virginia. Isaac and Marth's children were named in his will. Isaac's wife preceded him in death in 1792. Isaac's half brother Dr. Samuel Love was named legal guardian of the six orphaned children. In the 1790 census Isaac Love listed 22 slaves. Besides his medical profession, Isaac Love was a capable surveyor, a planter, and owner of fine horses. By the act of March 12, 1785 Isaac was appointed a member of Fairfield County Court at Winnsboro, S.C.

Isaac enlisted at the beginning of the Revolutionary War. He with his father and brothers of his wife took part in the Battle of Camden, and it was at this battle fought within one mile of "the old Love home place" that Dr. Isaac Love attended the mortally wounded Baron de Kalb.

A chapter of the DAR marked Isaac's grave, "Isaac Love, Soldier". He rests in Brick Church Cemetery, Fairfield, South Carolina.

M O S E S T R I M B L E

Moses Trimble, born about 1754 in Augusta County, Virginia, moved to Anson (now Mecklenburg) County, N.C. in infancy. In 1763 he moved to Long Cane Creek in Greenville (now Abbeville) County, S.C. In the American Revolution he served under Col. Anderson as a private and then as a lieutenant after the reduction of Charleston in 1780, furnishing saddles and saddlebags. He also served in the Georgia Line and furnished provisions for public use.

(Moses Trimble continued)

Before 1784 he moved permanently to Wilkes (now Elbert) County, Georgia, (although he still had business in South Carolina) where he received grants of land from the State and established a plantation. He acquired much land in the area.

Moses married Catherine Lewis about 1788 and after disposing of his land he moved to Franklin County, Georgia where he again purchased land.

Moses Trimble was one of the trustees of the Hebron Presbyterian congregation who received title to the seven-acre site of their meeting house. He also served many times on Franklin County juries. Trimble began disposing of his Franklin County lands in 1800 and in the fall of 1809 moved to Jasper (now Newton) County, Georgia.

The March 1980 issue of the FEDERATION of GENEALOGICAL SOCIETIES has published a supplement and an account is given of the southern states who might be of assistance to you regarding VITAL RECORDS.

ALABAMA While birth and death records in the State Department of Health are closed to the public, marriage records are OPEN to the public at the County Court-house in each County.

GEORGIA While birth and death records in the custody of the State Department of Human Resources are closed to the public, marriage records are OPEN in each County at the office of the Clerk, Probate Court. Let's have a new law to Open Birth & Death Records in Georgia.

A letter from the Georgia Department of Human Resources follows:

" Birth records are not open to the public. The Ga Ann. Code 88-1724, Paragraph (b): Full certificated copies of birth certificates shall be issued only to the following: (1) the person whose records is requested; (2) either parent whose name is listed on the certificate; (3) the legal representative of the person whose birth is registered; (4) the Superior Court upon its order; (5) any government agency, State or Federal, provided such certificate shall be needed for official purposes.

Certified death records are issued to any person as long as the required search fee of $3 has been paid. Certified copies of marriage and divorce records are not issued from this office but from the County Probate Judge Office of the occurrence.

A fee is required to search all records, this fee is not refundable nor transferable to another request."

The State of Georgia did not begin filing birth and death records until 1919.
Geo. E. Williams, President

LOUISIANA A letter from the Division of Vital Records, State Health Services and Environmental Quality follows.

" We have some records for the City of New Orleans from 1790, but they are not open to the public. There is a fee of $3 for search of each certified copy of a requested certificate."

MISSISSIPPI While birth and death records are closed at the State Board of Health, marriage records are OPEN to the public at the offices of the Clerks, District Court. Some of these records go back to 1800.

NORTH CAROLINA A letter from the Registrar of Deeds states that:

" All marriage records in the County are maintained in this office. Ours date back to the year 1847. What happened to the records prior to that date we do not know. These vital records are available for free access by genealogists for research..."

We shall assume the same rule applies to all marriage records in North Carolina Counties.
