A MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Greetings: I want to thank you for the confidence you have shown in electing me to be your president for the 1981-82 session. I will endeavor to uphold the high standards set in the past. With the help of the other officers and committee members I look forward to an interesting and productive year.

Coinciding with the publication of this issue of Buried Treasures, our Society celebrates its 12th birthday. They were an eager, optimistic few - the thirty two charter members who first formed the organization. They were brought together by a common desire to preserve the past for the future. We have grown since then as well-planted things are bound to do. Our membership now numbers 174 active members, 2 honoraries and 107 exchange member societies and libraries.

Our growth has necessitated the changing of meeting places from time to time as we outgrew our facilities. At our May, 1981 meeting we had an even one hundred members and guests in attendance. Lets keep it up! This growth and increased attendance is due only to the hard work of our members who volunteer their time and services. They gather information to publish in our quarterly and newsletter to be passed on to readers, both locally and in other parts of the country who are seeking information from our area. Your officers appreciate this effort and wish to take this opportunity to thank all who have contributed to this effort. So, when you are asked to head a committee or to serve on a committee please continue to give your full support. It is only through your efforts that we continue to grow and receive recognition for our efforts.

Julius (Joe) W. Ryals

SEARCHING IS GOOD FOR THE SOUL

Refreshing to both spirit and mind is the pursuit of elusive ancestors. Somehow you lose all track of time and space. By pushing a theoretical time button you go back thru the years and get involved with people and events, folks whose lives certainly have influenced our own in countless ways. Peace and contentment, freedom from modern stress and strain constitute the reward of the serious amateur genealogist. Tell someone of these pleasures and he is apt to snort and make some derogatory remark about dust and dried out bones. Let him. Delve and digest the details and come out solving problems that are just as satisfying, in our own small ways, as figuring how to put a man on the moon. What have we to show for our labors? Charts and records and a reconstructed story of the past. None of which will win you world renown, but the inner satisfaction brings a glow of pride in an accomplishment that can be shared, it seems, only with other genealogists. But then, who's interested in a golfers birdie and 2-under-par hole but another golfer.

*Richard E. Coe in The Searcher,
Vol. 4, No. 6, P. 80*

I looked up my family tree,
Back into ages now dim,
And found what I'd feared all along:
I've been left out on a limb!

Anon.

The Rev. Nathan Walker was my great-great grandfather, one of a long line of ministers spawned by the Walker family and their descendants. His wife's name was Miriah (I do not know her maiden name) who was brought to this country as a little girl and sold into slavery. Nathan and Miriah Walker had three children, Abbie, Andrew, and Hannah. Hannah Walker married Clemmon Williams and they had twelve children, one of whom was Julia, my grandmother. Julia Williams married Essau Shubert and they had eleven children, one of whom was George Shubert, my father.

Rev. Nathan Walker, known as the father of the Walker Association, was born in Richmond County, A.D., 1819, on the 25th day of July. The following sketch from Kilpatrick's History of Hephzibah Association, tells the best story of his early life as seen by the scrutinizing eye of a white brother who knew him personally:

"But his most remarkable success has been in his efforts to lead his people to vote against the retail of intoxicating liquors whenever the question was before the public, and more especially when it was before them in Burke County. It is true that this success was not attributable to his efforts alone, as other ministers of his race, both Baptists and Methodists were abundantly zealous in the prohibition cause, but he was the leader among them. He was baptized by Rev. Joseph Polhill at Piney Grove in October, 1843. He was in the organization of Franklin Covenant Church (colored) in 1849; was ordained to the ministry in 1866 by Louis Carter and Henry Watts." These beautiful words are a far better description of that noble life that made such an impress on the now brilliant leaders of the Association.

Thank you, Robert R. Shubert, for sharing your ancestor

EARLY MELROSE HISTORY

From an article "Shadows on the Sand, A History of the Land and the People in the Vicinity of Melrose, Florida" by Zonira Hunter Tolles.

When the British captured Havana in 1763, Spain ceded Florida to Great Britain to regain her Cuban possessions. In July 1763, Red Coats marched into St. Augustine to claim the land. Within six months the Spanish Governor and most of the inhabitants had departed either to Cuba or Mexico. With them went all parish records of baptisms, marriages, funerals, etc. and they were placed in the archives of the Bishop of Santiago de Cuba. These records went all the way back to 1594. Just a few hardy souls remained.

A Proclamation by the British king on Oct. 7, 1763 divided Florida into east and west sections. The east section consisted of most of present day Florida. St. Augustine was selected as the governmental site in the east and Pensacola in the west. Small tribes of Seminole Indians took advantage of the Spaniards departure and took over the cattle, horses and swine left by them in the Micanopy area as well as the peach and orange groves planted by the Spaniards.

James Grant from Scotland, a lawyer turned soldier, was chosen as first governor of East Florida. He had fought the Cherokees in the Carolinas and persuaded a number of prominent South Carolinians to accompany him to Florida. Among them was William Drayton who served as Chief Justice. Grant's first aim was to pacify the Indians to encourage new settlers to move into the area without the threat of Indian violence. James Spalding, a Scottish trader from Georgia, soon set up three trading posts one of which was Melrose. The Indians hunted and trapped for pelts and traded them as well as food, honey and wax for blankets, saddles, guns, axes, knives, cloth, dye, beads, cooking pots and kettles.

John Bartram, the King's newly appointed botanist, traveled throughout the Melrose area and an account of his travels describing the flora and fauna untouched by human hands was later published. He also told of the abundant wildlife and the friendliness of the Indians.

Today this area remains in it's natural state having been purchased by the state of Florida. It is known as Payne's Prairie and can be reached by driving west on FL 331 near I-75.

EARLY VOLUSIA COUNTY

Taken from "History of Volusia County Florida" by Pleasant Daniel Gold.

Between 1842 and 1844, early settlers of Mosquito County attempted to change the name of the county to Leigh Read to honor a man who had been a popular citizen and an outstanding soldier in the recent Indian War. He had recently killed a man in a duel and the brother of the slain man ambushed Read and killed him. Both men were of prominent families and their friends hotly debated the issue. The bill to rename the county was never passed and in 1854 Volusia County and Orange County were formed from what had been Mosquito County.

Volusia County thrived and in 1860 the census recorded 1158 inhabitants with most of the population growth being to the west along the banks of the St. Johns River. New Smyrna had only gained one family since 1854. One of the newcomers to Volusia County was John Padgett and it is said that he had first settled near the present city of Orlando and built a house. He then sold it to Mr. Orlando for whom the city is named.

When the Civil War broke out, almost all the able bodied men of the county volunteered. Although Florida soon became one of the main sources for food and supplies for the Confederate Army, it was untouched for the earlier years of the War. Mosquito Inlet, north of New Smyrna, became an important cause for the Confederacy because of it's convenience for blockade running. Cotton was sent to England and arms and munitions brought in. The only battle to occur in Volusia County was fought in 1862 in an attempt by Union forces to stop the blockade running. It wasn't successful and the blockade running continued throughout the War. Deserters from both sides hiding in the swamps plagued the citizens of Volusia County by banding together and raiding their lands and homes.

Bible records and Deeds submitted by Verna Hartman McDowell

The following letter (transcribed from the handwritten copy) gives a good impression of conditions in the early settlements of Louisiana. It was written by Catherine Hardy to Zinnamon D. Player of Wilcox County, Ga. He was killed in the Civil War (1865) and was not married. Catherine Hardy was named in the will of Zinnamon Player's father, William Player, formerly of Sumter Co., S.C., so she seems to be a true relative.

The periods and capitals between sentences are mine.

Jackson Parish La.

March 28th 1858

Dear Cousin,

I received your letter of date February the 16th and was glad to hear of your being in good health. These few lines leave me in good health. Hoping these few lines may find you in good health. I have nothing of interest to write as I know of. I would be glad to see you at this time. I would be glad to see all my relations out there and you in particular although you have treated me with silent contempt and with disappointment. If you were disappointed in your expectation you might of write to me and not kept me in suspense. I wrote to you two or three times and got no answer at all. I thought very hard of you for treating me so. I don't think you ought to want me to take back that word but come out and I will take it back for I would be glad to see you. You wish to know if you could do better out there than you could there. I do not know whether you can or not but I think you can. This country is not thick settled but a person can do very well by clerking or overseeing on the river. This is very healthy country. We live in 15 miles of Pine Bluff on the Hashita river. I want you to write to me where cousin William Hardy is and if grandfather Hardy is still living or not. I want you to write to me where Martha Louis is living. I am going to start to school in the morning. I am going to go three months. I want you to come early in the fall as you can for the time will seem long to me. The time will seem as long as the past has. I love you yet better than any person I ever say in my life. I want you to have your Daguerreotype [means photograph] drawn and send it to me if you please. You can send it in a letter. Do not treat me this time like you have once. I have complied with your wish about the kiss. I must bring my letter to a close. Write to me soon as you get this letter. So far you well for a while forget me not my friend I pray

but think of me though far away

GREEN FAMILY GENEALOGY

A paid genealogist compiled the early information. The later generations were collected from family sources. It was sent to me by a descendent. All place names are in Delaware Co., Pa. unless otherwise indicated.

NOTES:

I. The ship Delaware from Bristol, England, John Moore, Commander, arrived here (Philadelphia) 5/11/1686. Among the passengers were:

Thomas Green, Husbandman
Margaret, his wife
Thomas and John, their sons
Mary Gest, his servant for seven years to come from 5/3/1686

Richard Moore, brickmaker
Mary, his wife
Mary and John, their children
Sarah Searle, his servant for four years to come from 5/3/1686

Henry Gest, sawyer
Mary, his wife
Henry, his son

The wife of Richard Moore was the daughter of Thomas and Margaret Green. There is some reason to believe these people came from the neighborhood of Birmingham, England. Thomas Green, Sr. purchased land in Concord Twp and gave 200 acres of the east end to his son Thomas, Jr., and another 200 acres to his son John. The latter by will dated 12/14/1691 gave all his estate to his mother, Margaret, whom he appointed executrix. Her will dated 7/7/1708, proved 10/6/1708 mentions sons Robert and Thomas Green, grandson Henry Green, cousin Henry Gest and other relatives.

II. Thomas Green, Jr. married Sarah _____, possibly Sarah Searle as such marriages among passengers were not uncommon. His will dated 2/17/1712, proved 8/10/1713, appoints his wife executrix. He gives to his son John a mare colt as soon as it could be taken up. To the rest of his children: Robert, Henry, Edward, Samuel, Abel, Margaret and Sarah each a mare colt. To son Thomas a mare which runs about the Elk River.

Robert Green, son of Thomas and Sarah, married 9/18/1724 at Concord Meeting Rachel Vernon, daughter of John Vernon and Sarah Pyle. She died 2/17/1751. He died 3/20/1779 in his 85th year. They lived in Birmingham Twp. and had fourteen children one of whom, Rebecca, married John Register.

It is believed Abel Green, son of Thomas and Sarah, was the Abel Green who married Jane Register, widow. If Abel was their youngest child he must have been at least forty-two when the marriage took place. There is only one Abel Green listed among the taxables at that time. By deed 12/28/1735 he purchased 276-3/4 acres in Thornbury Twp., part of 500 acres formerly of William Bostock. Of this he sold 100 acres to Stephen Ogden 1/30/1735. From Thomas Williamson and wife he obtained 109 acres, 115 perches in Edgemont Twp 2/9/1742 and removed there. In 1764 he had 180 acres. He was not listed in the Friends membership although he probably attended their meeting.

III. The will of Abel Green of Edgemont Twp. is dated 11/25/1788. He devised to wife, Jane, L100, horse, saddle and bridle, a bond against Daniel Register for L50, also a home and maintenance. To son Abel, Jr. L5, to son Robert 150 acres in Edgemont Twp, bought of Jacob Yarnall and 30 acres of another tract bought of the executors of Peter Worrall, he paying L9 per year to his mother. To son, George, the homestead and residue of the Peter Worrall tract, he providing for his mother. To son, Abel, 150 acres in Thornbury Twp. during his lifetime, then to be divided among his children. To daughter Margaret Burn and her children L80, To grandson, Joseph Pratt L30 at 21 years of age. To grand-daughter, Mary James L20, To Jesse Reese, son of Lydia Minshall L20. Sons Robert and George Executors.

IV. The will of Jane Green dated 3/17/1796 gives her daughter Lydia Minshall a note for L10 against her husband, to her son Daniel Register five shillings. There is no other mention of her Register offspring. To her grandson Joseph Pratt she gives "my big old Bible" and L5. To grand-daughter Jane Green, daughter of Robert silverware. To grand-daughter, Abigail Baker, a spinning wheel and some pewter plates. To sons Abel, Robert and George Green five shillings each.

The old Bible passed on into the possession of Mary Pratt, daughter of Joseph, who lived in West Chester (Chester Co.).

V. Hugh Sidwell and Elizabeth his wife from Letcomb Regis, Berkshire, Eng. settled in W. Nottingham Twp. (Chester Co) prior to 1718 where he died in 1729 leaving sons Hugh, Richard and John. Hugh, Jr. married Ann _____. He died in W. Nottingham 9/18/1740. His children were Henry, Richard, Hugh Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Ann, Joseph and Mary. Joseph Sidwell born 11/3/1731, married 9/30/1762 at Little Britain (Chester Co) Rachel Medcalf, daughter of Joseph and Margaret of Little Britain. They lived in W. Nottingham and had children: Prudence, Levi, George, Rachel and Jesse.

Prudence was disfellowshipped by Nottingham Meeting for marrying out of meeting Abel Green. This was the son of Abel and Jane above. Their home was near Glen Mills and was later the home of Thomas Morris.

FAMILY NEWSLETTER

REVIEW

In these days of a rapidly growing interest in the family and their backgrounds, we find a person who has singularly taken it upon himself to bring these far-reaching family strains back together again through genealogy. Bert McIntosh, a member of CFG&HS, has started printing his own newsletter and mails it to all known members of his family. He shares the many facts he has been able to gather, charts a particular line in each monthly issue, gives valuable up-to-date information on those who have written him, lists birthdays, anniversaries and addresses. The newsletter is also full of family anecdotes.

After printing only five issues of the newsletter and receiving affirmative responses, a family reunion was held at which they expected about 40 in attendance. Sixty-three family members came from as far away as Georgia, Maryland, Texas, Virginia, Kentucky and from all over the state of Florida. They ranged in age from 18 months to 79 years.

If, by chance, you are of one of these lines, you may write to Bert McIntosh at Post Office Box 166, Orlando, Florida 32802. He'll be glad to hear from you.

We all might consider the newsletter approach to bring our lines closer together.

CFG&HS extends its congratulations for a job well done, Bert McIntosh!

OCTOBER

October got its name from the Latin word Octo, meaning "eight," because it was the eighth month in the older Roman calendars. The Romans dedicated the month to the god Mars and sacrificed a horse named October Equus to him. A race was run between two horses hauling chariots. The winner became the sacrificial victim. The Saxons called the month Wyn Monath or wine-month, because it fell in the season of wine making.

AND FOR A CHUCKLE!

From the parish register of Angmering, Sussex, England:

Baptisms

1749 July 16 - George, son (perhaps) of Richard, certainly of Sarah Amore.

From the parish register of Kencot, Oxfordshire, England:

Baptisms

1691 Jan. 2 - James Browne son of Richard of Long Compton, borne here by surprise.
(Long Compton is 20 miles from Kencot)

1714 July 8 - Elizabeth Turner ye son (mistaken by ye midwife for a daughter) of Philip & Christian.

From the parish register of Monxton, Hampshire, England:

Lucy dau. of Old Thomas Perrys & of Jane Burrough an illegitimate child was baptised Feb. 24 1775. Thomas Perrys an old incorrigible sinner aged 60 debauched Jane Burrough aged 18 put in by the parish to attend and assist his decrepit & bed ridden wife. Of this illicit and wicked commerce the child above baptised was the fruit.

(Elizabeth Perrys the wife of Thomas died later in the year and her burial is recorded thus);

(1775) Elizabeth Perrys wife of that Old Villain Thomas Perrys labourer Dec. 5 - Dec. 7.

From the parish register of Fletching, Sussex, England:

Burials - 9 Dec. 1764

FORGOTTEN, BUT NOT LOST!

Anyone researching the surnames of TERRY, ALLEN or Sisson? Please note the following:

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN - I am in possession of a number of old photographs bearing the name of Hillsdale, Michigan photographers - Andrew and Carson, Carson and Graham, and J. H. Hummels. The pictures are of members of the family of Frank TERRY, who died here in Orlando in 1921. His only daughter, Frances, never married and died here July 14, 1977. I was her friend and took care of her for several years. I still have these old family pictures which I am loath to destroy if any interested relatives could be found. Mr. TERRY had an uncle Delzon C. ALLEN who died here in 1912 and is buried in the G.A.R. lot. I also have his badge as member of Lodge No. 47 I.O.O.F., Rochester, Indiana. Another picture made by photographer Scholl of 25 Winter Street, Boston is of the Wesley E. Sisson family. I sent a letter addressed to Scholl or present occupant of 25 Winter Street which was returned to me. Another picture of a fine old house says on the back Wesley Sisson home, Chester Hill, Mt. Vernon. If any interested relatives can be found, I would be so glad to hear from them.

The above-mentioned cemetery was recorded by Mary Jane Knisely and Betty B. Hughson.

by Julius W. Ryals

Julius (Joe) Ryals whet his appetite to research his genealogy during a recuperation period and realized he had only broken the surface of this very rewarding and absorbing hobby. After attending his first Ryals reunion in Lenox, Alabama in 1979, his original eight pages of information grew to sixty-four pages and there are still hundreds of Ryals just waiting to be discovered. The questions remain: Heraldry records indicate Ryals originated in Northumberland County in northeast England along the Scottish border; or were they Welsh as their Baptist religion indicates; and who was the first Ryals immigrant to enter this land?

As in most lines, there are numerous spellings of the surname as it evolved over the generations. This family was no exception with RYALS, RIALS, RILES, RYLES and RYEOLDS appearing frequently. (A deed dated 1784 and witnessed by John Ryles (Ryals) reflected the then common practice of using both spellings in a document to show the name spelled in different ways.) The official family Coat of Arms is pictured in the book with its explanation and the surname Ryals appears to be locational and associated with the English meaning "one who came from or lived near Ryhall."

The early part of the book traces the many censuses and the family migration through South Carolina Welsh Neck Track area of baptists who first came to this country in 1701, to Pennsylvania, Delaware, and then on to Alabama.

After this extensive and meaningful background, Joe then gets into the "meat" of the subject, the individual family members. They have been listed by lines and in order accordingly. Each person has been thoroughly traced showing dates and places of birth, marriage, birth of children, death and cemeteries. To show you the magnitude of this volume, there are also ten pages of indices.

It is difficult to conceive that one person could amass such a compendium of information in so short a time and be able to assemble it in such a form that it could be understood by all.

CFG&HS is proud of our member, president and friend for his masterful effort on behalf of his family and ancestral lines.

Should you wish to obtain details or purchase a copy of this book, you may contact Julius W. Ryals at 99 Carolwood Blvd., Fern Park, FL 32730.

NOVEMBER

Though it is the eleventh month on our calendar, November came ninth in the old Roman calendar, and is named from the Latin word novem, meaning nine, among the old Saxons it was known as Wint Monath, or wind month, from the gales that were said to start blowing at this time of year. It was also known to them as Blot Monath, or blood month, because it was the time of year that they slaughtered great numbers of cattle to be salted for winter use. November, the month when winter begins, used to be known as the month of gloom and blue devils.

CREED

OUR LIVES are the gift of our many antecedents

OUR GOALS are to perpetuate their names and activities

OUR LABOR is to gather and preserve that left to us

OUR LOVE to extend both backward and to assist each member.

*'The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a
