PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

April 1985

Dear Members and Friends:

Several months have gone by, and as your President, I want to thank everyone for the support they have given the Board. We see a bright future for the Society, as we make new friends and renew old friendships during the time for "fellowship" after each meeting.

At the February meeting, it was a pleasure to see and hear those who have computers plan a get together to help each other. Helping each other is one of the main goals of our Society. The Board, in making the decision to have a longer time of fellowship after each meeting, hoped for just such results. Hopefully, some of you have been able to find another member searching the same area or even the same family that you have.

The annual seminar, held in February, was very successful. Speaker Robert Young Clay, archivist at the Virginia State Library, Richmond, Virginia, spoke about research in Virginia, but explained that this method of research in Virginia may be adapted to fit most states.

If any member has a particular wish, please contact any member of the Board, as we welcome suggestions from all members.

At this time, an Intermediate Workshop is planned for April and another for beginners in August. Information on both will be forthcoming.

Sincerely,

Betty Brinsfield Hughson
President

With special thanks to Pat Murphy, who suggested the following be included:

STATE OF KENTUCKY
PENDLETON COUNTY

On this the third day of April, 1841 personally appeared before me Wm. G. Woodson a Justice of the County Court for the County aforesaid, the same being a court of record, Mrs. Agnes Wilson, so resident of the town of Falmouth in the County aforesaid, aged 70 years and upwards, who being duly sworn according to law, doth on her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain, the benefit of the provisions, made by the Act of Congress passed July 7, 1838, entitled: 'An act granting half pay and pensions to certain widows,' That she is the widow of James Wilson dec. who was a private soldier in the war of the revolution and departed this life on the 12th day of August 1829 in the town aforesaid. That the said James Wilson served as private in the army of the revolution and as such in the battles at Camden, So. Carolina and also as such, in the battle at Guilford Court House, No. Carolina, also as such fought in a skirmish on battle at Williamsburg, Va. and also in said army previous to and at the Licking or surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Little York, VA. and also at other battles and skirmishes, as she has often heard him and others detail.--And after Cornwallis surrendered he was so tween of service jail Winchester, Va. guarding British prisoners for several months.

That she was born and raised in Caroline County Virginia, in the same neighborhood in which her said husband was born and raised, and of her own knowledge knows that he as early as the year 1780 joined the army and went on tour to the South with the Virginia troops, while yet quite a youth and after the battle at Camden, So. Carolina in which he was, returned home to Caroline County, Va. and shortly after his returned home, he left again for the army then in the South and served in the same and was at the battle at Guilford Court House, No. Carolina, whether these his services in the South were under one or more terms of tours or only one she is not able to state, or whether two, three, six or twelve months tours she cannot state, but she very well remembers that his first absence and service in the South at the period the first of these battles were fought was the longest he continued absent in service at one time, whether his absence was under one engagement for one or more terms she cannot state, but she feels confident he returned from the South in the period between those two battles or events and then left again for the South and was both at the battle of Camden and Guilford.

She further states that the residence of her father was near Bowling Green, Caroline County, Va. and within about four miles of the residence of the father of her said husband, and that her husband and herself went to school together, and while she was quite young she was affianced to him before he went into active service and that after his last return from the South, he was absent from home, in the army, in Virginia a number of times for periods shorter or longer how long at a time she does not know. But she distinctly recollects that shortly after his last return from the South, he again left for and joined the army and was at the siege and the taking of Little York, and surrender of Lord Cornwallis and afterwards was several other shorter tours between the taking of Cornwallis and the final peace in '83. Col. Nicholas Long, then Capt. or Major accompanied him while out in one or more of his tours. He was also commanded while in service by a Col. Matthews and a Col. Johnson...She feels entirely confident from the best of her memory, his services in the army were between one and two years, if not quite or more than two years--The precise period or periods he served in active service she is not able to state, since it was before her intermarriage with him, yet during the pendency of so relation between them, that his absence was not had passed, she was very young--That she was married to said James Wilson, at her father's house, whose name was John Pickett in Caroline Co., Va. Oct. 16, 1787, and she and her said husband thereafter resided in Caroline, until the fall of the year 1796, when they together with four of their children and family removed to Scott Co., Ky., not far from Georgetown; and about 2 years thereafter in 1798 they removed to this section of the country, now Pendleton County, Ky., where she has resided ever since, and now resides. Her husband having died in the year before stated.

She further states, that she does not remember the precise day or month in which her said husband first entered the services; further than that it was in the year 1780, when the Virginia troops generally marched towards the South to meet Cornwallis. Her father lived immediately upon the great thoroughfare leading thru to the South, and she well remembers the troops marching by her fathers house on their way after the taking of Cornwallis and his frequent conversations about the events of the South with those who were his brothers in arms from Virginia, both as to Gate's Defeat--the battle of Guilford, the taking of Little York and surrender of Cornwallis. Neither can she state the precise day, month or year, when his tour or tours ended, and he finally returned with others discharged from the service--But she has often not only heard him detail many incidents of the aforesaid three events, to those who were present at them with him and also to others, but the straights and events which occurred with him and others at a skirmish or battle at Williamsburg, Va. and also events which occurred after the surrender of Cornwallis, while guarding prisoners at Winchester she thinks--that is was only so five months or weeks, to the best of her recollection, after her husbands first return from the South, before he again left for the army in the South and then returned after the Battle of Guilford and shortly after his second return again left for the army and remained until after the taking of Cornwallis at Little York--After the taking of Cornwallis her husband again served several tours or was again absent in the army, but how many or how often between that and the final close of the year in 1793 she is not able to specify.--She is under the impression and belief that he served principally as a volunteer or to save his fathers from going, whose services and protection were deemed important at that period to his family. She states that her husband, from information, went during his services as far as Camden, So. C. and home to Caroline again and the second time as far as Guilford Court House, No. Carolina and then home again and thence to Little York and other places either before or after the siege and probably both. Whether his services were in the State or Continental line or both she does not know, but that with the exceptions of his services in the South his tours were confined to Virginia both before and after the surrender of Cornwallis.

She further states that she has no documentary evidence to support her claim as to her marriage, or her husband's services, further than the family record, hereto attached (marked A) taken from their family Bible, and which she states is in the hand writing of her husband, showing the date of their marriage and their births and the births of their children. That during the life of her husband he always refused, having an ample competency, to avail himself of the proffered gratuities of his country, for his revolutionary services in the way of Pensions, alleging that he needed it not, tho always was reputed well known soldier, and as such recognized by all his contemporaries acquaintances of that period who knew him in his younger days as well as by reputation, with his after life acquaintances and by reason thereof frequently urged to apply for his proffered claims to the government; but he uniformly refused upon the grounds that he needed not the aid of his government.

She refers to the affidavits hereto amended for further proof of her husband's said services, her marriage with him--And also declares that since the death of her husband she has not been married, but now is, and since his death hath been his widow and relict.

She further declares, that she was married to the said James Wilson on the 16th day of October in the year 1787 in Caroline Co. Va. about 4 miles from Bowling Green by the Rev. Taylor and Episcopalian preacher, that her husband the aforesaid James Wilson died at Falmouth Pendleton County Kentucky on the 12th day of August 1829. That she was not married to him, prior to his leaving the service; but the marriage took place some years after the war, but previous to the first day of January 1794, was at the time above stated.

STATE OF KENTUCKY
CAMPBELL COUNTY

On this the 12th day of July 1841 personally appeared before me, George Morris, a justice of the County Court, for the County aforesaid, the same being a Court of Record Col. Nicholas Long a resident of the County aforesaid aged 87, who being duly sworn, according to law, doth on his oath make the following statement to wit that he was well and intimately acquainted with James Wilson, who died at Falmouth Pendleton County Ky. and also his wife Agnes--That the said James, was this applicant half brother and the said Agnes the wife of said James was the sister of this applicant wife, now dec.--That the said Agnes is the daughter of John Pickett, dec. of Caroline County Virginia and the said James Wilson, the son of Abraham Wilson, the second husband of the mother of this applicant. The said James Wilson and his wife, the said Agnes were both born in Caroline County Virginia, and married in that County, and some years after their marriage removed from Virginia to the state of Kentucky--First to Scott County, and afterwards to the neighborhood of Falmouth Pendleton County in which place the said James Wilson died, leaving him surviving his wife the aforesaid Agnes. This applicant distinctly recollects being at the wedding of said James and Agnes and several incidents of which attended at the same--but to the name, the precise year in which that event took place he cannot with certainty. The said Agnes was much younger, than her sister this applicant's wife, and was married when quite young to said James Wilson in Caroline County at the house of her father.

This applicant further states that during the revolutionary war--when the seat of war was changed from the North to the South, he distinctly recollects that the said James Wilson and his father (this applicant's stepfather) both were in service in the Virginia Militia in the South. How long James served in one tour in the South or whether he went more than one to the South, he does not recollect--but he distinctly recollects of having had various conversations with his said brothers of the events of his services in the South, that among them Gate's defeat and the battle of Guilford Court House in No. Carolina, were frequently and often and familiarly spoken of; and feels confident and as much so as of any event, which he does not of his own personal knowledge know--that James Wilson was not only in the American army in the South as common soldiers, but that he was both, at Gate's defeat and at the battle of Guilford Court House.--And this confidence is founded upon the frequent conversations had with him and others in reference to those two battles pend from the fact in the family events, and among and with all the acquaintances, such has always been taken to have been two of the events which occurred to him while in service in the south.

This applicant further states that he feels confident in his own mind, that the said James was also at the taking of Cornwallis at Little York, Virginia--But from the great length of time which has since elapsed, he cannot speak with certainty as to the length of time he served at one tour, or for how long he went out to service--his impression is that his services were 2 months tours at a time--but how long he the said James at one continued period served, in fact, he does not remember but whether the said James went out for longer or shorter tours, he very well and distinctly knows that he the said James Wilson, was always talked of and viewed by all those who knew him, and as such knew that he took a part in the revolutionery struggle, that he had alone so faithfully and honorably without imputations of any kind whatsoever, of that having performed his duty as a soldier in any respect whatever--This applicant feels entirely and fully confident that the said James Wilson while serving, fully served out his respective periods or tours and no time left the army, at any one time, otherwise, than in a honorable way--had such been the case, he would have heard of it, and the said James Wilson would not, as he always was spoken of by his acquaintances of that period as a faithful and honorable soldier of the war.

Nicholas Long

STATE OF KENTUCKY
GRANT COUNTY

On this the 24th day of August 1841 personally appeared before me H. Woodside a justice of the county court for the County aforesaid, the same being a court of record, Mrs. Mary Theobalds, the widow of James Theobalds, dec. she the said Mary being a resident of the county aforesaid, aged about 78 who being duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following statement and affidavit. That she is the sister of James Wilson, dec. late of Falmouth Pendleton County Ky. in which town he died some year since and left him surviving, his wife Agnes, as his widow and relect, who now resides in Falmouth Ky., being the widow of said James. She further states that the said James Wilson, dec., and herself were the children of Abraham Wilson and both born in Caroline County Virginia from whence, they both removed to Kentucky. Her said brother and family removed from Caroline County some years before this applicant. While in Caroline County Virginia, the family of said James, as well as herself and family, lived some short distance from Bowling Green, until they and herself removed to the west. That her said brother married in Virginia in Caroline County the said Agnes, now his widow that her maiden name was Pickett--she being the daughter of old John Pickett. That said James was married within 2 miles of this applicant's father's, and the day after the marriage, her brother said brother brought his wife to this applicant's father's house with the marriage company. That she was well acquainted with said Agnes, while single and has ever since, up to the present time, well knowing and been well acquainted with her and knows her now as the widow (having only yesterday seen and been in her company) of her brother James's surviving wife. She was not at the wedding herself; for on the day thereof, she remained at home and next day received at her father's house the wedding company knows as well, and certainly, as tho she had been present personally, that they were actually, and duly and lawfully married according to the agreements of the laws of the land. This applicant further states, that her said brother, the late husband of said Agnes was in the revolutionary services, and served in the army _____ armies of the revolution, both before and after the taking or surrender of the British Army at Little York. and at the seige thereof--but as to the precise time, he went out and returned home, or how many tours, and the length

Mary Theobald (her mark)

On this the 5th day of January 1842 personally appeared before me David L. Clarkson a justice of the County Court for the County aforesaid, the same being a Court of record Martin Fugate Esq. a resident of the County aforesaid aged 64 yrs., who being duly sworn according to law, doth on his said oath, make the following statement to wit: That he was well acquainted with James Wilson, the husband of Agnes Wilson, who now resides the widow and relict of said James in the town of Falmouth County aforesaid--that he first became acquainted, both with said James and his present widow about the year 1797 and from thence knew him and the family up to the death of said James, who died about the year 1828 or 9 in said town leaving him surviving his widow and relict, the said Agnes now living in said town, unmarried and the widow of said James Wilson. That the said James Wilson was a man of higher standing and good reputation, honorable and honest in all his deportment and relations of life, and his family respectable and highly esteemed. That the said James Wilson from his first acquaintance, up to his death was reputed to have been a revolutionary soldier, so taken and viewed by all his acquaintances, so far as known to this applicant, and by his neighbors understakingly believed to have been. That he (the applicant) does not know, of his personal knowledge when he the said James and his wife were married, yet, from the reputation and standing, the morality and respectability of said James and his said wife and their family he has no hesitation in believing, that they were duly and lawfully married at an early period of their lives. This applicant is well acquainted with their children: Samuel Wilson, William C. Wilson, John A. Wilson and James Wilson, sons of said James Wilson and Agnes his late wife and now his widow and supposes Samuel to be a man of the age of 50 or 51 and the eldest of the sons. He also knew their daughter Fanny who married Denon H. Kennett, and who some 2 or years elder than Samuel and the eldest child. He has been acquainted with Samuel and others on for many years past. His acquaintance with Samuel commenced with that of his father and has continued up to the present time. This applicant was also and is acquainted with the daughters following of James and Agnes to wit Nancy - Sarah - Lucy - and Agnes and has resided since the year 1803 in the same county with said James up to his death and widow to the present time.

CREED

OUR LIVES are the gift of our many antecedents.
 OUR GOALS are to perpetuate their names and activities.
 OUR LABOR is to gather and to preserve that left to us,
 OUR LOVE to extend both backward and forward so that
 OUR CHILDREN may feel close to their folk and their land.
 OUR DUTY is to share all gathered information, while
 OUR HOPE is to interest others and to assist each member.

"The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a Godly heritage."

Psalms 16:6
